

RK SOLID X-CEL

To be ready for the competitive season, you'll need to start conditioning early . . . and that's where RK Solid X-Cel can help. RK Solid X-Cel are professional fitness trainers skilled in customizing exercise and conditioning programs to prepare you for any and every sport. By providing hands on resistance training, plyometrics, stretching, running, agility drills, and sports nutrition, we can increase your flexibility, strength, agility, vertical jump, speed and help motivate you toward success . . . all before your competitive season begins or as a supplement during.

RK Solid X-Cel works with athletes as young as 8 years old using resistance techniques instead of weights. For athletes over 12, X-cel introduces customized programs utilizing all forms of weight and resistance training.

RK Solid X-Cel operates out of Four Seasons Health Club, the largest workout facility in the Siouxland area offering selectorized equipment and free weights. With over 15 years in the fitness industry we have solid experience, training, and applied knowledge in preparing athletes for each individual sport. RK Solid X-Cel works in conjunction with Four Seasons Health Club *and need not be a member to participate.

Here at CrossFit FS you will not find rows of treadmills and weight machines. Instead you will find pull-up bars, kettlebells, barbells, and wide open space for squatting, running, jumping, climbing lifting and throwing – moving your body the way it was designed to be moved. All your workouts will be comprised of exercises that mimic movements performed in day-to-day life or sport. We focus on improving functional movements that are necessary and common in your daily activities.

It also means you will never get bored with your training. With our constantly varied programming you will rarely do the same workout twice in any given year. You will never have to program your own workouts or spend hours in the gym. Instead, each day a entire training session including warm-up, mobility, strength work, conditioning, and cool downs will be provided for you that is scalable to suit your fitness level. Because our group classes are no more than 60 minutes long, it can fit into even the busiest schedules.
